It's a beautiful brick church. The pastor joked, "The roof's still on!" This dedicated pastor died in his 80's in 2016, some months after retiring. May his soul rest in peace. In this section, I have a selection of Free Christian Appreciation Card Verses and Appreciation Messages — for non-commercial use. These Appreciation Poems are free to use when you don't know what to write in your homemade appreciation cards and you're looking for Christian wording that will complement your Appreciation card making, ecards, scrapbooks, crafts or church newsletters/bulletins. Say thank you to a friend, neighbour or teacher. The smile on my face doesn't mean my life is perfect. It means I appreciate what I have and what I have been blessed with. I choose to be happy. Here are a few examples of appreciation poetry that you can use to thank someone for their kindness. Thank You Poems and Words of Encouragement A Thank You Letter To My Church Family. To My Church Family, Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. I don't know if I can say that enough. You mean the world to me. My faith would not be nearly as strong as it is now without you. You have seen me at my worst and you have seen me at my best. Where you feel that you belong. For you are valued by the Lord. And He has a purpose for you, He's placed within you special gifts, He longs for you to use. And we, as a church, would love to see. You grow within your gifts, For then we all can receive a blessing. With what God's blessed you with.
